GLOBAL PERSPECTIVES PROGRAM – Application Form

Deadline to apply is Monday, March 4th 2024**

For the 2024/2025 academic year students are invited to apply to the Global Perspectives Program, a semester long, four-course cohort. The four courses comprising the program are Explorations in Social Studies 11, English First Peoples Literary Studies 11, Economics 12, and Social Justice 12

Sutherland Secondary School's Global Perspectives Program is designed to enrich students' understanding of global affairs by fostering their engagement in economic, political, environmental, and social systems. Students in the program will develop a global perspective through experiential learning of local and international issues pertaining to global leadership, and work to create solutions to global issues that can be implemented at a local level.
